FATIMA

A Sensible Cigarette

The Original
Turkish Blend

Yes, SENSIBLE—because it's comfortable

THERE are other good tasting cigarettes. Fatima isn't the only good one. But when it comes to comfort—there is probably no other cigarette in the world quite the equal of Fatimas. Fatima's Turkish Blend is so delicately balanced that it leaves a man feeling keen and fit even after a long-smoking day. You could prove this for yourself.

PERSONAL.

Lieut. Robert C. Knowlton, who is in charge of a recruiting station in Middlebury, was a visitor in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge L. Knowlton, over Sunday.

United States Marshal A. P. Carpenter is attending sessions of the United States court, in St. Johnsbury today, Montpelier Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Burlington Friday and Rutland Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller of New York city, who had been visiting her sister, Miss Nellie L. Archer, on Ames hill, left yesterday for an automobile trip on Cape Cod. They were accompanied by Miss Archer.

Frank Freyenhagen of Springfield, Mass., who with his family have been spending a vacation in Williamsville, was in town over last night in the home of his brother, C. R. Freyenhagen. He returned to Springfield this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Soliday of Dedham, Mass., were visitors in town yesterday. Their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Soliday, who had been visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. H. C. Rice, and Mrs. M. S. Jones returned with them by automobile to Dedham today.

Sporting Notes.

Umpire Jim Keedy of the Eastern league will go at the close of the season to Lehigh to assist his brother, Tom, in coaching the football squad. He will also serve as football umpire.

President August Herrmann of the Cincinnati Nationals announced Saturday night that he had bought pitchers Sanders and Regan from the Kansas City club of the American association. Joe Bush of the Athletics entered the hall of fame Saturday by shutting out Cleveland without a hit. In the first inning he gave a base on balls, but aside from that not an Indian reached the first sack.

William M. Johnston and Clarence J. Griffin, the California holders of the national doubles championship, won the final of the doubles in the Meadowbrook club tennis tournament at Southampton, N. Y., Saturday afternoon after four furiously contested sets filled with spectacular driving and smashing. They defeated R. Norris Williams, 24, and Richard Harte, the Harvard pair, at 7-9, 6-4, 6-4, 6-3.

Jake Daubert of Brooklyn has regained the lead among the National league batters with 325 and Hornsby of St. Louis is second with 321. Honus Wagner of Pittsburgh holding third place with 318. In the American league Speaker of Cleveland still has a good lead, although Cobb of Detroit has gained on him. Speaker's average is .386 and Cobb's .363. Jackson of Chicago is third with .350.

Ty Cobb may quit baseball at the end of this season. Not that Cobb is going back any, but the Georgia peach is weary of the jeers of hostile fans and wants to retire to a peaceful life at his home in Georgia. Cobb, a hot-blooded southerner, finds it difficult to restrain himself at times from doing bodily harm to those in the grand stand and bleachers who ride him. Cobb has announced that he will play this season out and then quit. He is convinced now that he can have no peace of mind as long as he can have no peace for hurling his bat at a tan-colored bleacher.
